

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

OF ALL the flowers of early spring none are more lovely than Tulips—nor are any more universally admired. For six weeks or more you can have them in bloom if you select the right kinds—or if you possess some of the collections shown on the following pages.

Hunt's Big Collections of Spring-flowering Bulbs

Front Page Tulip Collection

A gorgeous garden group of Darwin Tulips in six different varieties, giving a rainbow of colors. These colors can be arranged in any fashion that strikes your fancy—circular bed, crescent, or a broad border of color along the garden paths. Each color is in a separate package, and no collection like this has ever been offered before.

50 bulbs each of Six Different Darwin Tulips (300 bulbs) for $13.50

Indoor Group of Single Early Tulips

From the varieties in this group you may have blooming Tulips in your windows for six weeks or more. After potting, put the bulbs in the dark until well started, then bring a few pots to the light from time to time as they are needed. This collection includes three colors, White, Yellow, Red. Each in a separate package.

25 bulbs each of Three Colors (75 bulbs) for $3.50

Narcissus, Paper-White Grandiflora

Lily-of-the-Valley, Berlin Pips

Miniature or Dutch Roman Hyacinths

Freesia, Hunt's Purity

Outdoor Group of Single Early Tulips

For outdoor bloom in the early spring garden, Single Tulips are unsurpassed. They can be used as a border for the hardy garden, grouped among shrubbery, or used in a bed by themselves. The three colors in this offer are in separate packages.

25 bulbs each of Three Colors (75 bulbs) for $3.00

50 bulbs each of Three Colors (150 bulbs) for $5.50

Indoor Group of Hyacinths

Hyacinths are really the simplest of Dutch Bulbs for indoor blooming, growing well in pots or in glasses of water. The bloom-spikes are large and the flowers sweetly perfumed. This group is made up of single varieties in Blue, Pink, White.

5 Mother bulbs each of Three Colors (15 bulbs) for $3.00

Outdoor Group of Hyacinths

Blooming in early May or even in mid-April. Hyacinths add just the touch of color that the spring garden needs. The best effect is obtained by laying them in large groups of one color rather than using mixed varieties. This group provides Blue, Red, White, in separate packages.

25 first-size bulbs each of Three Colors (75 bulbs) for $8.00

50 first-size bulbs each of Three Colors (150 bulbs) for $15.00

Indoor Group of Narcissi

The single varieties are best adapted for house-culture and will grow readily in pots of soil or in dishes filled with pebbles and water. Some varieties are pure white, some pure yellow, and others yellow and white.

25 bulbs of Narcissi for Indoor Growing for $1.50

Paper-White Narcissus

For growing in water, much superior to the Chinese Lily, which it closely resembles.

$1 per doz., $5.00 per 100

Outdoor Group of Trumpet Narcissi

This group includes such well-known varieties as Empress, Emperor, Von Sion, and Princeps. Should be grown in large clumps to secure the best effect.

25 bulbs each of Three Different Varieties (75 bulbs) for $5.00

50 bulbs each of Three Different Varieties (150 bulbs) for $9.00

Miniature or Dutch Roman Hyacinths

These are the little single Hyacinths that bloom indoors during the holiday period. They can be grown very easily in pans or pots.

25 bulbs Assorted White, Blue, Pink for $1.50

50 bulbs Assorted White, Blue, Pink for $2.50

Freσίας, for Midwinter Bloom

Ten or a dozen bulbs in a 6-inch pot can readily be forced into bloom for the holiday season. The flowers are deliciously perfumed.

25 bulbs, Assorted Varieties for $1.50

Lily-of-the-Valley

Bulbs ready for delivery in November

Can readily be forced for indoor growing. Put the pips in a 4- or 6-inch pot, place them in a dark room or cellar until well started.

Package of 100 pips for $6.50. Case of 250 pips for $13.50

NOTE.—We prepay postage or expressage on all bulbs offered in this list when cash accompanies order.

Narcissi for Naturalizing

The small-flowered varieties, known commonly as the Poeticus Group, are adapted for naturalizing under trees, in meadows, or on the edge of the woodland. For this purpose large quantities are needed. They should be secured this year, as a ruling by the Federal Horticultural Board prohibits importing Narcissi in the immediate future.

100 Narcissus bulbs for Naturalizing for $5.00

250 Narcissus bulbs for Naturalizing for $12.00

Crocus for Naturalizing

The little blue, white, or yellow Crocus is one of the daintiest and earliest of spring flowers. May be grouped in borders or mingled on the lawn.

100 bulbs each of Blue, White, and Yellow Crocus for $6.00

250 bulbs each of Blue, White, and Yellow Crocus for $13.50

Border of Narcissi and other Spring-flowering Bulbs

William M. Hunt & Company, Inc.
148 CHAMBERS STREET : NEW YORK CITY

No Lovelier Colors Exist than are found in Hunt's Wonderful Tulip Collections

DARWIN TULIPS are unquestionably the finest Tulips known in American gardens and are increasing in popularity every year. They are extremely effective for mass planting, among shrubbery, or in the hardy plant border. Not only do Darwins fill a distinct place in the garden, but they bring their charm and loveliness into the house where they are extremely effective for decorative purposes.

50 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Darwin Tulips (150 bulbs) for $7.00

100 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Darwin Tulips (300 bulbs) for 13.00

BREEDER TULIPS are the old Dutch self-colored varieties. Some of the happiest color combinations are revealed in this group. The flowers are extremely large and borne on strong stems. They may be grown in the garden or in the greenhouse.

50 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Breeder Tulips (150 bulbs) for $8.00

100 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Breeder Tulips (300 bulbs) for 15.00

COTTAGE or MAY-FLOWERING TULIPS are known to all who grow spring flowers. The color range is extremely wide, varying from pure white to sulphur-yellow, from delicate lavender tints to deep violet-lilac, and from light pink to a glowing scarlet and crimson.

50 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Cottage Tulips (150 bulbs) for $6.50

100 bulbs each of three distinct varieties of Cottage Tulips (300 bulbs) for 12.00

The various collections will include only desirable varieties, and in each instance will give you 50 or 100 bulbs of one kind—not a miscellaneous assortment of colors. You can therefore plan a definite color scheme and know that the color blocks will be true.

We prepay postage or expressage to any part of the United States when cash accompanies order

WILLIAM M. HUNT & COMPANY, INC.

148 CHAMBERS STREET

NEW YORK CITY